

John E. Adams, Jr.

Education

M.Ed. – Master’s degree in education with a focus on English Instruction

B.A. – Bachelor’s degree in Secondary English Education

B.A.- Bachelor’s degree in Music Education

Certified in English, Music, and Bible

Experience

Thirty years of experience teaching middle school, high school, and college level

Adjunct Professor for Palm Beach Atlantic University

AP Literature Instructor

Academic Dean of a Christian Academy

Principal of a Christian Academy

Headmaster of a Christian Academy

Personal

My wife and two adult children are also professional educators. I have a passion for Christian education and also for missions and educational travel. I have visited thirty-two different countries. Music is also important to my family. Each of us is classically trained, plays string instruments, and have directed orchestras.