

Rebecca Cobo, 5th

Jackson, Tennessee, is where the roots of Mrs. Rebecca Cobo are planted. She attended primary and secondary school to graduate from Dyersburg High School in Dyersburg, Tennessee, eventually. Shortly after graduating high school, Mrs. Cobo enrolled, attended, and graduated from Union University in her hometown of Jackson. It is here that she earned a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration with a minor in Spanish. Some years later, God would lead Mrs. Cobo to work with children struggling with behavioral disorders.

In 2010 and spanning more than nine years, Rebecca Cobo taught primary and secondary students in foreign languages, specifically Spanish. She served students both at F.B.C.S. and Redeemer Lutheran. By 2016, Rebecca claimed the role of Director of Children's Ministries at First Baptist Church. She would eventually move into the more challenging position of Director of Youth Ministries. F.B.C.S. is pleased to announce that as of Fall 2021, Mrs. Cobo will be engaging, nurturing, and leading our fifth-grade class in Biblical principles and academic achievements.

The Cobo family consists of Mr. and Mrs. Cobo and their five children. Traveling, exploring, and playing games is how the family relaxes, unwinds, and has a good time. Mrs. Cobo's passions are reading and singing.
