

Andrew Struhar, Music teacher

Andrew Struhar is the worship pastor at FBC Stuart and the music and theatre director at First Baptist Christian School. As a solo vocal artist and pianist, Mr. Struhar has traveled, sung, recorded, and collaborated in many concert venues, universities, and churches. He is a graduate of Liberty University with a Bachelor of Music degree in Choral Performance. He has performed leading tenor roles in many theatrical and operatic productions, and James Madison University with a Master of Music degree in Vocal Performance, Pedagogy, and Literature. He performed many roles and gave many concerts and recitals. Mr. Struhar founded Grace School of the Arts in Ocala, FL, in 2014 while singing as a resident artist with Central Florida Lyric Opera. He has been leading worship, directing choirs, and teaching music lessons to students from kindergarten through collegiate level since 2006. He currently resides in Port St. Lucie, Florida, with his wife, Michelle, two daughters, and one on the way! Mr. Struhar is enthusiastic about entering his 4th year teaching music and theatre at First Baptist Christian School!

The Lord is my strength and my shield; in him, my heart trusts, and I am helped; my heart exults, and with my song, I give thanks to him. – Psalm 28:7
