

Janet Church, Home Economics/Writing Coach

Native to South Florida, Mrs. Janet Church was born in Palm Beach County and remained there throughout her academic career, graduating from Lake Worth Community High School and earning a degree from Palm Beach Community (Junior) College, growing up in a God-centered Christian home influenced Mrs. Church to pursue a future in Christian Education. She went on to gain degrees through Palm Beach Atlantic College, Florida Bible College, and American College of Education. These academic accomplishments have assisted Mrs. Church in educating, shaping, and supporting students in various educational settings for nearly 40 years.

In 1992, Mrs. Church became a member and influencer at F.B.C.S. She would remain here, changing the lives of students, for 22 years. At that time, she felt God was calling her to be a light in the St. Lucie County Public School system. This allowed her to minister to colleagues and students. Once again, God changed his direction for Mrs. Church's life and drew her back to Christian education. She currently serves as our middle school Home Economics educator. Mrs. Church conducts monthly writing workshops for students and teachers implementing and dedicating her passion for writing to all.

Serving others comes naturally to Mrs. Church. She loves to entertain and host gatherings for friends and family. Staying active and spending time with her husband are also favorite pastimes of Mrs. Janet Church.
