

Rebecca Mollenkopf, 4th grade

Originally from Key West, Rebecca Mollenkopf is a 6th generation native Floridian. She grew up in Palm Beach County and attended John I. Leonard High School. After high school, Mrs. Mollenkopf traveled the United States learning multiple trades, interacting with many new people and varying cultures, and exploring the majestic land of our beautiful country and its rich historical foundation. Mrs. Mollenkopf then returned to the Treasure Coast, where she attended Indian River State College. She graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in K-12 education. Mrs. Mollenkopf has educational certifications in the areas of Exceptional Student Education (E.S.E.), Intense Reading and Mathematics Interventions (I.R.M.), and English Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL). She has worked with students of varying disabilities, multicultural communication, and multi-tiered academic achievement levels.

Mrs. Mollenkopf became a member of the F.B.C.S. family in 2012. Since then, she has held multiple positions, including substitute educator, kindergarten assistant, and 4th-grade educator. Mrs. Mollenkopf has also coached various school sports, led Elementary Chapel services, co-organized the Book I.T.! reading club, facilitated the annual Science Fair and other projects related to our school.

When Mrs. Mollenkopf is not enriching the minds of our Fantastic Fourth Graders, she loves to spend time with her family and pets. The Mollenkopf family are outdoor enthusiasts and spend much of their free time camping, off-roading, hiking, fishing, and exploring nature.
