

Renaldo Maycock, 6th

A native of Nassau, Bahamas, Mr. Renaldo Maycock received Christian education in primary and secondary forms. By the time he was a teenager, Mr. Maycock knew that he wanted to live a pleasing life to God. At 13, Reynaldo accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior, thus dedicating his actions to God. Mr. Maycock completed his secondary education at Teleos Christian School in Nassau, Bahamas. Next stop, Haines City, Florida, where he dedicated his studies to education. Four years later, he proudly received his Bachelors of Science in Secondary Education. To help prepare himself for the journey ahead, Mr. Maycock dedicated his time to be a youth camp counselor and Sunday school educator. These experiences would allow for a solid foundation in the area of influencing young minds.

Joining the F.B.C.S. family in 2020, Mr. Renaldo Maycock has served in many crucial areas of our organization. He happily greets and enriches the lives of our 6th-grade class through homeroom and Bible classes. With mathematics being his passion, Mr. Maycock guides and educates our entire middle school population in this academic territory. The administration here at F.B.C.S. has also considered his physical and athletic abilities and entrusted him with coaching, mentoring, and training our students in weight lifting, physical education, and basketball.

Because his passion for education and sports is so prevalent in his life, Mr. Maycock spends his spare time making personal improvements in these areas. He and his wife love to exercise, play sports, and spend quality time enjoying one another.
